

VENTURE HOME MINISTRY

HUA-HIN, THAILAND

Music team from Norway

Wow, what a month we had! Not only were we working on Timothy's House just about everyday we also had new visitors from Norway who came to spend some time with us. Jan and his music team blessed us with great worship and beautiful music. It was great to hear familiar worship songs in English where it was heart felt. They even sang songs that we sung at our home church (Venture Christian Church). Flora and I could not hold back the tears. We praise God for their ministry and for giving us a brief moment that reminded us of home. Singing praise songs to our Lord is truly a universal language.

Thanks to our friends the Kipa's from New Zealand we got to experience and help with this year's K triple C camp (Kids Celebrating Christ Camp) in Ratchaburi province. Flora and I had a group of 18 kids that were all 5th graders. The camp was geared towards teaching Thai kids English. We also thought them worship songs in English as well as in Thai. The theme was about God creating everyone to be special in his or her own ways. This was especially hard for the Thai kids to understand because they grow up wanting to be like the rest of their peers.

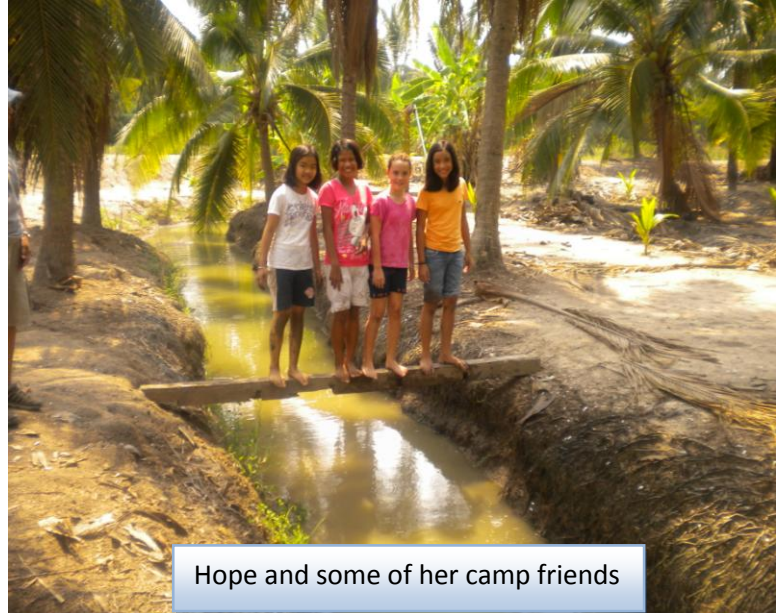

Morning fun runs with the kids

In Thai society if you don't fit into a category, you don't belong. To think for yourself or express your opinion outside of the group is going against the traditions you were raised up in and thus you are literally going up against your family. Please pray for God's wisdom to be poured out on the Thai youth and that they will learn to be content with who they are.

Faith making some new friends

Hope and some of her camp friends

"We're in Thailand!" That's what we say when things happened to us or they just don't go quite the same way as it would back home. It's kind of funny at times just like this cow we saw walking on the road just down the street from our church. Or this sign as you are driving through one of the animal parks.

Thank you for your continued prays for our ministry here in Thailand. Timothy's House should be completed soon and we will start a mid week service for the kids, pray that God will use it for His glory.

May God bless you and your family!
